

LOCAL NEWS.

THE MISSISSIPPI FLOOD.—The following are extracts from a letter, alluded to in the Gazette yesterday, received in this city by a friend of Mr. W. E. H. Claggett, lately engaged in the store of Mr. Lawson, in this place, but who is now working a plantation in Louisiana: After having such bright prospects, the water came and overflowed us ten feet deep and over, in some places. The water is four feet deep in our yard, (in Louisiana I mean), and it was impossible to go out, except in boats, and in this way had to feed our stock. We had to make extra floors in our gin, and on a plantation just below us the negroes had to leave their quarters and seek shelter up in the gin in the first room. You cannot form the least idea of what an overflow is—stock dying around from hunger, with no place to stand except in the water. This, you know, made their legs swell and killed them. One of my neighbors lost forty-five cattle; one two mules—nearly every one suffered more or less. After the water was over us, we, like the balance, thought it best to bring our mules to the hills to save their lives; their legs would swell so severely standing all the time, and the "bull" gnats were commencing to kill them. These "bull" gnats get in their nostrils and ears and under their throats and flanks in such numbers that they kill them in a day or two. They are perfectly awful on man and beast. A gentleman killed several deer that were bitten by them, and declining to eat them himself, gave the meat to his dogs, and everyone died from the poison in the meat. Last Tuesday one of my neighbors and myself, with twelve hands, started with a large flat containing twenty-two mules to Vidalia, just opposite Natchez, to pasture them in the hills of Mississippi. Fortunately, we did not bring all we had. I had on fourteen, and my neighbor eight. We had to come nineteen miles. We had a delightful day, and had nearly reached our destination. About half past eight p. m. the moon shone beautifully, and everything seemed in our favor. We had only about half a mile to go, when, almost instantly, a terrible hurricane came up, such as I have never seen before. We were on the upper edge of an open field two miles wide. The wind literally took us up and dashed us through the angry waves, rolling six or eight feet high, at the rate of twenty-five or thirty miles an hour, into the woods, smashing our flat in about fifteen feet of water. Fortunately for us no man was lost. Just before we struck the trees, we all caught hold of the limbs that were hanging down and saved ourselves. I supposed that nearly everyone would be lost. The yells and wailings and cry of the negroes were perfectly awful. God forbid that I should ever witness the like again. I lost ten mules and my friend lost six. We had to swim about two miles; some got on a bridge, a very high one, over a Bayou, the top of which was just out. Fortunately a small boat came along to our assistance. I had also a very small skiff along, and rowed about two miles through one of the severest storms I have ever witnessed, to get assistance. I reached my destination in safety and sent a large boat down, not daring to return in the skiff. I suppose it will be the first of June before we can go to work; then it will be too late to plant cotton and too late for corn, the worms are so dreadful on late crops.

SHIP YARD.—A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Alexandria Marine Railway was held yesterday afternoon, when Mr. Davis, of New Jersey, a practical man, and familiar with and experienced in such work, explained to them, at the yard, his idea of the construction of the new and large ways that are to be laid there south of the ways now in operation. Another meeting of the Board will be held tomorrow, when it is expected the plan proposed by Mr. Davis will be adopted, and that gentleman be awarded the contract for doing the work. Arrangements for procuring the necessary material for the construction of the new ways—which are to be capable of hauling up the largest sized vessels—are almost completed, and as soon as the contract is awarded the work of laying will be commenced and pushed rapidly to completion. The small ways, those laid in operation when the property was purchased by the company, are kept busily employed hauling up vessels of light draft, and a large force of workmen is constantly engaged there. Had the large ways been completed, two steamers would have been repaired here this spring that were forced to go to Baltimore. No definite arrangement has yet been made about employing a General Superintendent, for such an officer is not now wanted, Mr. Thomas Berry, who is at present managing the yard, an excellent practical mechanic, being fully competent to attend to all the work that may be sent there.

REGISTRATION.—The result of the registration which closed in this city last evening, as reported by the registrars, is as follows:

Wards.	White.	Colored.
1st	385	175
2nd	307	159
3rd	645	372
4th	304	357
	1641	1063

White majority 578.

As the white Radical vote in the city, at its largest estimated strength, does not number two hundred, the Conservatives, should they remain united, as will doubtless be the case, will have an easy victory at the coming election, and will elect all the regular nominees of their party without any difficulty.

The result in the county, in which not half the votes usually polled there were registered, shows plainly enough how the Conservatives have been chiseled out of several late elections in which the county took part.

THE SCHOOL CENSUS.—A census of all persons between 5 and 21 is being taken by a deputy appointed by the Commissioner of the Revenue, in pursuance of law, and it is hoped that all persons will give him the required information promptly when he calls for it. We regret to learn that he has not, on all occasions, been treated with that courtesy which is due to one who is performing a public duty. Sometimes, in quarters where such replies were not to be expected, he has been told to go to places of business a long distance off, for information which could, just as readily have been given at the dwelling, the proper place for asking it; and at others he has been as unreasonably received as if he had been an officer armed with a warrant of distraint. People should remember that the officer gets very small pay for his work and cannot afford unnecessary time to do it, and that every name he fails to get, the city has to give a dollar to the School Board which would otherwise be given by the State, which dollar augments our taxes.

FESTIVAL.—The lady managers of the proposed festival for the benefit of St. Paul's Church, are busily engaged in making all necessary arrangements. We are requested to say that all the members of the congregation could not be called upon, any having contributions will please notify the managers and those who have promised to contribute will make known as soon as possible the character of their donation. The festival will doubtless be one of the finest affairs ever gotten up in this city.

PROPERTY SALE.—A two story brick house and lot of ground on the south side of Wolfe street, belonging to R. W. Robinson, was sold this morning under a deed of trust by F. A. Kirby, auctioneer, and bought of H. C. Slaymaker, for $800.

Dr. Johnston and Mr. Ballenger are erecting large and expensive barns on their farms near this city.

POLICE REPORT.

The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday:

James and George Lucas, for disorderly conduct and fighting at Peyton's Grove, were fined and discharged.

Richard Taylor, colored, for disorderly conduct and fighting at the ball at the colored Odd Fellows' Hall, last night, was discharged for want of evidence.

Two unfortunates, one white and one colored, insensible from the effect of liquor, were locked up in the station house.

Two lodgers were accommodated at the station house last night.

NOKESVILLE.—Messrs. Green & Wise, Real Estate Agents, received a letter this morning from their agent, Mr. Freeman, who is exhibiting lands near Nokesville, to a party of land buyers from Ohio and Pennsylvania, stating that he has sold one tract already, and thinks it highly probable that he will dispose of others. The Nokesville neighborhood at the present rate at which immigrants are coming in there will soon be the most thickly settled portion of Prince William county.

MEDICINAL WATERS.—The pump of the sulphur and chalybeate well at Catts' Tavern, West End, which has been out of order for some time past has been repaired and large numbers of persons, some from a distance, go their now to drink the waters. From the terminus of the street cars to Catts' is but a short walk, and will but aid the beneficial effect of a morning and afternoon draught from the well.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Robert Petit, implicated with Robert Jefferson in the late corn house robbery on the opposite side of the river, has been released from the jail at Upper Marlboro', in which he was confined four months.

A horse attached to a buggy, from Washington, ran away on King street yesterday afternoon, making directly for the dock at the foot of the street, but was stopped just before he reached the bulk-head.

Coroner Samuel Beach, who has been ill for some time past, was so much worse this morning that r-pipes were stretched across the street in front of his house and his friends have almost despaired of his life.

Accommodation passenger trains on the A. & F. R. R., which have been making only tri-weekly trips to Quantico for some months past, will commence making daily trips to that point tomorrow.

The chain gang, under charge of its commander, Pat. Dillon, supported by police officer Crump, were out for a short time on the street this morning, but the rain soon drove them into the comfortable shelter of the jail.

It is reported that $14,750 has been offered for the Miller residence on north Washington street, and if the offer be accepted that a Catholic institution will be established therein.

The steamer Fairy did not make her regular trips to Farmington yesterday and to-day because she laid up here to undergo the regular yearly inspection.

The death of Mr. Robert Conway, a native of this city, is recorded to-day. He died in New Orleans, on the 8th inst., in the 61st year of his age.

The Circuit Court of Prince William county, adjourned yesterday after a session of four days.

HYGENIC.

The most healthy people in the world, other things being equal, are those who wear clothing suitable to the season—that is changing it so as to correspond with the changes in the temperature; and now that the warm weather is upon us, we should, that is if we want to keep well, cast off the dark, thick and warm garments worn during the winter to prevent the heat of our bodies from escaping, and assume light, thin and cool garments, so that the escape of the very heat so essential for us to retain last winter, may be easily effected by the evaporation of the perspiration, induced by the higher temperature. To secure this desirable result there need be no trouble, for from the extensive stock of L. Schwartz & Co., at Sarepta Hall, just such articles as are required, of any needed pattern, may be obtained.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

FROM WASHINGTON.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 15, 1874.

Both Houses of Congress begin their sessions now at 11 o'clock instead of noon as heretofore. But one of the appropriation bills has become a law as yet. The other appropriation bills are all in different stages in one or other of the Houses, and members are anxious to get away before the dog days.

In the Senate, to-day, during the morning hour, a number of private bills were passed—none of them of any interest in Virginia except a bill for the relief of the trustees of the Presbyterian Church at Martinsburg, West Virginia, appropriating $2,500 to reimburse for property destroyed during the late war.

The House of Representatives was also engaged with the private calendar, and among the bills to be considered was one for the relief of Daniel F. Dulany, of Va., but it has not been reached when this dispatch is transmitted.

DISTRICT INVESTIGATION.
The Investigation Committee of the District held no public session to-day. In private, detective Whitley, of New York, was examined.

Latest from Arkansas.

NEW YORK, May 15.—A little Rock special says: Everybody is in a state of suspense waiting to hear from Washington. Mr. Richards, U. S. deputy marshal, who was shot by King White's men on a steamboat and subsequently escaped, arrived safely yesterday.

The Baxterites yesterday captured Brooks' horses and carriage with his daughter and driver. All were soon released except the driver, who was armed. Col. King White and the cavalry were out scouting yesterday afternoon south of the State House. Three companies were sent after them from the State House. They met at 4 o'clock and some shots were exchanged. White retreated with one man slightly wounded. While riding back to camp one of his men fired at some negroes and accidentally shot and killed one man named Geo. Hilton. He was shot through the abdomen and died instantly. The sheriff's house and stables in Faulkner county were sacked by Baxter's men. The owner was in the city. An old colored man in charge was shot. About sunset Wednesday evening James Jenkins, a deputy constable, was called to the door of his house on the opposite bank of the river by four Baxter men. One shot him with a rifle in the right side and another shot him with a double barreled shot gun in the right side. He was mortally wounded and is supposed to be dead now.

Without this organization, says the letter, the Duke is said to have declared that he will not remain in office.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned hereby notify their patrons and the public generally that on and after the first day of JUNE their BARBER SHOPS will be closed on Sundays. They deem it proper to state their reasons for so doing, and hope they will be thought just and sufficient.

Keeping open on Sunday deprives the Barbers of their day of rest, which they need and are entitled to.

Keeping open on Sunday deprives the Barbers of the privilege of going to Church on Sunday morning.

Keeping open on Sunday is not necessary, and therefore appears to them a desecration of the Lord's Day, which the Barber, as well as other tradesmen, is bound to keep holy.
